ATA CARNET: Passport for Goods

Implementation of the ATA Carnet System in the United Arab Emirates from 1 April 2011

The Dubai Chamber of Commerce became the 69th guaranteeing organisation member of the WCF/ATA international guarantee chain on 1st April 2011.

The use of ATA Carnets is accepted for temporary admission operations and transit by Customs for three main categories of goods:

- Goods for display or use at exhibitions, fairs, meetings, or similar events

ATA Carnets are accepted for unaccompanied goods.

ATA Carnets are not accepted for postal traffic.
