Rhinefield House Hotel

After a stressful morning, enjoy a leisurely ride through the forest to the Rhinefield House Hotel and Conference Centre. The hotel is approached up a long sweeping drive which is shadowed by Canadian redwood and copper beech trees. This magnificent country mansion, surrounded by natural forest is home to a number of hidden treasures.

The restaurant contains a magnificent carving of the Armada which is set in the fireplace, this took nine years to complete and was carved out of one solid block of oak some 4ft thick.
