

Comment from Jan Ward, President of the Southampton and Fareham Chamber of Commerce said that:-

“It is great news that Southampton has been awarded this funding for the Sea City Museum. Southampton has a rich historical heritage and with the completion of the Cultural Quarter has the potential to become a very important regional arts and cultural destination.

The Sea City Museum will enhance the City for visitors and residents alike”.