

Survive & Thrive Business Breakfast
30 top tips to win business in difficult times
Wednesday 25 March 2009, The Rose Bowl, Southampton

UK Trade & Investment South East (UKTI) is running a series of FREE events across the region to examine actions that companies can take to beat the current downturn.

There are many expert support organisations which companies can turn to in tough economic times. With help from key partners, these seminars will bring this expertise together in one place. The events will provide a package of advice focusing on key "top tips" that could overcome the current downturn.

Benefits include: a rounded package of financial based advice; invaluable advice from industry experts; the chance to network with like-minded businesses and a Free Top Tips to Win Business booklet, full of essential guidance and ideas to use every day.

To book your free place visit www.keystone-group.co.uk/ukti/southeast or call 01453 872731 for further information.
