

Are you talking about me?

No, but we will be “talking business” at the:
Hampshire Chamber of Commerce inaugural conference November 2, 2011

Add spark to your business and share the challenges of moving forward into 2012 and beyond by joining us, our three key note speakers and our panel of experts to “talk business”.

Our three key note speakers are:

NEIL CLIFFORD

Recently sold Kurt Geiger for £215 million. He started working in retail in a hardware store in Portsmouth age 16 in 1983, and then joined the Burton Group as a suit salesman in Debenhams Southsea in 1985. Following a career in retailing Neil became CEO of Kurt Geiger in 2003. In 2005, Neil led the management buy-out from the Harrods Group and subsequently led the secondary buy-out in partnership with Graphite Capital in 2008. He recently completed a sale of the business to The Jones Group.

NICOLA YOUERN

Chief Executive of YOU a leading charity. Recently voted The News Business Personality of the Year as well as winning the prestigious Marks and Spencer Sieff Award for her work with business in the South East. Last year, YOU became a Sunday Times Top 100 Employer for the first time and, this year, made it to number 12 in the Sunday Times Best 100 Public and Charities Companies to work for.

CHRIS MOON - Going the extra mile

As an Achievement Consultant and Keynote Speaker, he has a passion for helping others to challenge boundaries; to do what they do, better. By drawing on his extraordinary experiences and achievements, Chris offers valuable insights into how people and organisations can go the extra mile.
